

Goya Canvas

340 gsm, Poly-Cotton, natural white, satin-finish

Product Description

Hahnemühle Goya Canvas is a satin-gloss poly-cotton inkjet canvas featuring a distinctive surface texture. The characteristic, tactile canvas texture lends art reproductions and photographs a painting-like appearance. Together with the satin-gloss premium inkjet coating, it produces outstanding print results with striking reproduction of colour and detail, deep black and perfect contrasts. Goya Canvas is acid- and lignin-free and meets the most exacting requirements for age resistance and is ideal for FineArt use. The canvas structure is highly compatible with canvas stretching frames.

Applications

Photographic and fine art reproduction complying with highest archival standards, digital art, black & white and colour photography, limited edition prints and exhibitions.
